	28.8.2003 Petitioner by Shri A. N. Bhakta, Advocate. Respondents/State by Shri Ranbir Singh, Govt. Advocate. By this petition under Article 226/227 of the Constitution of India the petitioner has challenged his transfer order dated 28th July 2003 Annexure P/1. The petitioner's case is that vide order dated 14.7.2003 he was transferred from Police Station Janjgir-Champa to Akaltara and earlier he was posted at various places in the State of Chhattisgarh. The petitioner already rendered his services in Bastar about three years which is a Naxalite Area. Earlier also he was at Jashpur from July, 1986 to September, 1990 and thereafter again posted from 1990 to 1992 at Jashpur. In the Police Station Janjgir Champa the petitioner remained only for one year. The petitioner's sons and daughters are of marriageable age; on account of frequent transfers he could not settle his family. Therefore, the impugned order may be stayed. It is settled law that the transfers are made on administrative exigencies and the petitioner has not raised any malafied or bias. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that on account of frequent transfer of the petitioner he is not able to settle his family. He is at the verge of retirement, he will be retiring within three years, his children are of marriageable age they are receiving higher education at Bilaspur, and for this purpose the petitioner wants to make a representation before the competent authority. Having heard learned counsel for the parties and having regard to the facts and circumstances of the case the petitioner is allowed to
